TALKING FOR A LIFE

Attorney Crawford Pleading
For Scott Jackson.

DAY DEVOTED TO DEFENSE

He Attacked With Vehement the Conduct of the Cincinnati Police Department and Wondered Why Larry Hazen Had Nothing to Do With Working Up the Case—His Speech Not Finished.

CINCINNATI, May 13.—Tuesday in the Scott Jackson trial was entirely devoted to argument for the defense. At the opening of court Colonel Crawford said:

"Gentlemen of the jury, I am here today, after listening to the evidence, to say what I can for this unhappy student, who is now entangled in the clutches of the law. When the police force of the city of Cincinnati judge a man guilty they make him out guilty. I tell you that Scott Jackson was adjudged guilty by Plummer, Crim and McDermott at Greencastle on the 5th of February. Who are these great sleuths? Who is Crim? Who is McDermott? Who is Plummer? Why Crim says on the witness stand he had been a detective but for one year, and I understand that McDermott is a messenger for Mayor Caldwell, and as for Plummer, he is a good collector of taxes, but what he doesn't know about detective work would fill a book. Where were Hazen, the chief of detectives of the Cincinnati police force, and the other bona fide detectives over there, as Mr. Schnuck and Mr. Crawford? Look to whom this case has been intrusted!

"I do not question the testimony of Mayor Caldwell or Crim or McDermott or Plummer, they were telling the truth. I did not cross-examine the parents of the dead girl. I have the greatest respect and the greatest sympathy for them. My heart goes out to them in their sorrow, but, gentlemen, if the jury, there are two sides to this question. We have here the mother and sister of this unfortunate man; this man who is a victim of the most dastardly persecution at the hands of a relentless police.

"I tell you the persecution this man was subjected to was outrageous. Think of the sweating process he was subjected to, of the long days and sleepless nights, without having a chance to remove his clothing. He was subjected to a steady fire of questions by police, newspaper men and the hundreds of visitors. The Spanish inquisition pales into insignificance.

"Gentlemen of the jury, I am going to tire you and I know I am going to tire myself in covering this case. I am going into the facts. I am going to cover every point in a clear, unimpassioned way. I don't care if people do say I did not make a great speech. I am after the facts and the truth.

The speaker began to examine and discuss the evidence in the trial. Jackson's conduct with Pearl Bryan was reprehensible, he admitted, but he did not consider the act as guilty as that of the man who ruined the girl.

For some time Colonel Crawford dwelt upon the testimony of Will Wood, whom he denounced in unmeasured terms. Wood, he said, is "an infernal little scoundrel," and he referred to the numerous Greencastle depositions which contradict the testimony of the preacher's son.

"Scott Jackson," he continued, "has been painted as a traveled experienced man of the world. Upon this point we find that when he was a little boy his old father took him on his ship across the ocean several times."

As to the Indianapolis episode, he dismissed it as a not unusual experience in student life.

The speaker next touched upon the Jersey City indictment which charged Scott Jackson with embezzlement, but said that the prosecution failed to prove that he even was arrested.

"Scott Jackson came to Greencastle in the holidays of '94-'95, when he met Pearl Bryan. Did he go out there for the purpose of dissipation, did he go out there to loaf? No, sir, he went there to work and earn his living, and he worked in the office of Dr. Gillespie that spring and summer. And what was his reputation? Not one witness said it was bad; not one person came here and said his reputation was questionable, but many came and said his reputation was good; that it was good morally; that it was good in regard to veracity and truthfulness."

Colonel Crawford then read the letters Jackson wrote Pearl Bryan. He then discussed the letters, pointing out vividly and eloquently that the communications were entirely free of any mention or suspicion of wrong-doing or even intimate friendly relations between Jackson and Miss Bryan before the Christmas holidays of '95-'96.

Attorney Crawford was interrupted by the court, and the noon recess was ordered.

In the afternoon Attorney Crawford at once resumed his speech in the prisoner's defense, telling how he had been persecuted by the Cincinnati police officials and Sheriff Plummer from the time of his arrest until taken across the river.

"And now for the Caldwell guards," said the speaker. "Here was Pinkard who said he and his wife went out that Friday night for a pleasure walk and that the rain did not begin until after they returned home late. I hope we set at rest their testimony and that of the others when we introduced the signal service officer and proved that the misty rain began at 4 o'clock that afternoon and continued into the night.

"The route George H. Jackson says he took to Fort Thomas and back is a good 15 miles. Every one of you men know that. One witness of the prosecution said that Walling leisurely walked into Heider's hotel at 3 o'clock Saturday morning, only one and three quarters of an hour after the coachman claims they left George and Elm streets."

The speaker pointed out that in all probability Coachman Jackson could not twice have crossed the Newport bridge without paying his fare. A frightened darky, as the coachman says he was, would not return to hitch a horse he had never seen, when he had once started to run.

Colonel Nelson said he could get along without Coachman Jackson's story, but he does not get along without it. If the jury do not believe the coachman's story, this defendant can not be held for any crime in Kentucky," exclaimed Crawford.

He reviewed minutely the evidence which bore upon Coachman Jackson's exploits at Springfield, O.

The date when Scott Jackson had his beard shaved was considered. The prosecution intimated that Jackson had his beard shaved after the murder, but there were nine witnesses, Crawford showed, who testify that Jackson's beard was shaved off Friday morning, Jan. 31.

"Now Wallingford and his little black satellite, Allen Johnson," to whom Crawford referred as an imp of darkness, "say that on the night they saw Pearl Bryan and the two dental students, Jackson wore a beard. By their own mouths they show that the night the prisoner was in the saloon with the girl must have preceded Friday.

"The testimony of the McNevers alone is enough to prove Scott Jackson's innocence," urged Crawford, "and the only evidence that he left the house is the testimony of the illustrious Wallingford, Allen Johnson and of George Jackson.

"Why, the medical experts say the body had lain at Fort Thomas 10 to 14 hours," exclaimed Mr. Crawford. "If it was there only 10 hours the corpse was lying on Locke's farm at 9:30 o'clock, when Scott Jackson was still in his room, and half an hour after he told Miss Minnie McNevin to call him if her tooth ached."

At 4:20 o'clock the speaker caught Commonwealth's Attorney Lockhart consulting his watch. "I am not nearly through," he said; "I propose to continue tomorrow in my plain way until I have finished with this case."

He speaker began to array the medical experts against themselves and continued until 4:45 when Judge Helm interrupted him and told him that he could rest until morning. His voice was hoarse from speaking.

IN MEMORY OF A HERO.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—With imposing ceremonies the heroic equestrian statue of Major General Winfield Scott Hancock was unveiled here yesterday afternoon before an immense gathering, which included President Cleveland, Vice President Stevenson and representatives of the supreme court, the diplomatic corps, both bodies of congress and army veterans and colleagues of the late general.

HANCOCK MONUMENT.

The unveiling was preceded by a military demonstration. Four companies of artillery marching as infantry, four companies of marines, with the Marine band; Light battery B; Third artillery, a squadron from the Sixth cavalry, the full district militia and numerous military organizations, including the Second army corps, at the head of which General Hancock achieved his greatest victories, participated in the parade.

Brigadier General Brooke, commanding the department of the Dakotas, U. S. A., was the grand marshal of the day.

The exercises opened with a prayer by Right Rev. James Y. Satterlee, bishop of Washington. The principal address was delivered by Senator John M. Palmer of Illinois, major general of the United States volunteers during the war. A salute was fired at the unveiling of the statue took place. Seven hundred invited friends gathered at the scene, including many relatives and friends of the deceased general.

The statue stands in the heart of the business district of Washington. It is the work of Henry J. Ellcott, the noted sculptor, and its total height is 33 feet 8 inches, the distance from plinth to the top of the hat is 14 feet 6 inches and the height of the pedestal from the ground to the plinth is 19 feet 2 inches.

The proportion of the rider is such that if standing erect he would measure 10 feet in height.

MADRID, May 13.—The Correspondencia says that it believes that Captain General Weyler will be succeeded by General Blanco, governor of the Philippine islands, who will proceed to Cuba via the Pacific and San Francisco.

A NEW CONSTITUTION

One Is Asked For by Some of the Methodists.

REFERRED TO A COMMITTEE.

The Woman's Question Again Comes Up in Committee Meeting—But Little Done in the General Conference—Committees Behind With Their Reports—Church Extension Society Work.

CLEVELAND, May 13.—Yesterday's session of the M. E. general conference opened with Bishop Fowler in the chair. The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. H. G. Jackson of Rock River.

BISHOP C. H. FOWLER.

Considerable oratory was indulged in over the headlines of one of the morning newspapers, which made it appear that a conference delegate had denounced the Christian Endeavor society as idiotic because it had prayed for the conversion of Colonel Ingersoll. The storm quickly blew over, however.

The resolution asking for the appointment of a constitutional committee to revise the constitution of the church was introduced. It provides for a committee to meet at Chicago which is to formulate a constitution which will meet the world-wide scope of the church. Referred to the committee on constitution.

The shortness of the session and the failure of the conference to transact much business was due to the delay of the committees in preparing their reports.

The committee on missions in the afternoon considered the request of the conference of India that missionary work be done among the educated people of that country. A memorial was received requesting that all appropriations for missions be made specific instead of general. Both were referred to subcommittees. The committee recommended that the contingent fund of the missionary societies be increased from $25,000 to $50,000.

The woman delegate question popped up fiercely in the committee when South America asked that lay missionaries be seated in the missionary annual conferences. Many of these lay missionaries are women and it was argued that their being a part of the annual conference would allow them to be delegates to the conference. There was a hot discussion and the matter was held in abeyance, but will probably be settled by allowing lay missionaries to occupy seats in conference but not to vote.

The book concern committee discussed and will probably recommend that the church journal be published in Spanish for the benefit of Mexico and South America.

The education committee decided against the proposition to consolidate all the educational institutions, a course of procedure recommended on the score of economy.

There was a lively time at the meeting of the church extension committee over some severe criticism of the financial management of the Church Extension society. The society loans money to weak churches with which to build, taking mortgages. The complaint was that often those mortgages were worthless and the interest not paid. Rev. Dr. Kynett, the secretary, made vigorous answer that they were a great church and not a money-making corporation; that it would discourage the spread of the church and the gospel to be too exacting, and that to press for the last penny used for Christ was not in line with true Methodism. The committee upheld Dr. Kynett.

The Epworth league committee debated the proposition to recognize the league of the only young People's society in the church. This was hotly opposed on the ground that it would drive many young people out of the church.

At the meeting of the committee on Episcopacy last night Dr. J. F. Goucher of Baltimore, for the subcommittee to consider the advisability of electing more bishops, reported that Bishops Bowman and Foster and Missionary Bishop William Taylor were worn out and inefficient and recommended that two additional bishops be elected to strengthen the board. Dr. D. H. Moore of Cincinnati moved to make the number four, and his motion was supported by Dr. Graw, Dr. Leonard and Dr. Kynett. Before action was taken the committee went into executive session, and when it adjourned nothing could be learned as to the result.

At the arnory in the evening there was a meeting of the church extension society at which Dr. William A. Spencer of Philadelphia one of the secretaries read statistics showing that $5,500,000 had been devoted to the work during the past 30 years; 9,962 churches were aided during that time. The collections for the past four years exceeded those of the previous four years by $31,000.

Russia Does an Act Considered Unfriendly Toward Great Britain.

SHANGHAI, May 13.—J. Smith, the agent of the Russian Steam Navigation company at Chefoo, and also the agent for various American missions, has secured the foreshore at Chefoo belonging to Ferguson & Company, agents for steamships and the New York Life Insurance company. Other firms objected, but Russia intervened and the Chinese acceded to the request of the Russian vice consul.

Further Accounts of the Affair.

LONDON, May 13.—A special dispatch from Shanghai says that the Russians, through an American agent named Smith, have taken possession of the disputed territory at Chefoo, over which the British claims rights. Six Russian warships are there as well as the Detroit, Yorktown, Olympia and Machias of the United States navy. The dispatch adds that intense excitement prevails at Chefoo.

A dispatch to The Globe from Shanghai says that the Russians have seized Lot 12 of the British concession at Chefoo in defiance of all legal and treaty rights.

The Globe's editorial comment on the dispatch from Shanghai contains the remark that: "The seriousness of the news from Chefoo can not be overstated. The action taken is in direct contravention of existing laws and treaties and can not be viewed by Great Britain as other than an unfriendly act."

CHICAGO TRAGEDY.

CHICAGO, May 13.—Daniel McCarthy, formerly of Cincinnati, an expert bookbinder who had been separated from his wife for a week or more on account of a drinking spell, yesterday went to the flat occupied by her mother, on Illinois street. The wife, thinking that he had come to reform, met him at the door with her arms extended. Instead of responding he drew a pistol and fired twice in succession. Both bullets entered her face and she died instantly.

The murderer then fled, and, up to this time has not been captured. They came here a couple of years ago from Cincinnati, and her mother, Mrs. Grover, said that the family was well known there. She did not wish to give any names. The father is dead. McCarthy was a skilled workman, earning big wages, but abused his wife shamefully when drunk. She had the reputation of being a patient woman and as obedient as a child.

Investigation develops the fact that McCarthy had been drinking all night. The murdered woman was 20 and the husband 32 years old. Twenty detectives are scouring the city for him. Telegrams have been sent to the chief of police at Cincinnati, warning him to be on the lookout. All depots are being watched.

FARMERS DESPONDENT.

Long Continued Drouth and Excessive Hot Weather.

SHELBURNE, Ind., May 13.—The long continued drouth and the excessive hot weather is bearing heavily upon the farmers. Not a drop of rain has fallen for two weeks, and the thermometer is now showing a daily temperature of 90 degrees. Corn is doing but little good, and what little has sprouted is being mowed down by the cutworm.

The ground is hard and full of clouds, many farmers realizing the hopelessness of trying to get their land in planting condition until softened by rain. The pastures are showing the effects of the drouth, and in many localities the wheat is burning up. Young clover is almost a total failure, while oats are struggling for existence. Small fruits are doing no good, and potato bugs are being devoured by bugs. A good, hard rain would help matters wonderfully, but until the rain comes there can be no relief.

A Tramp Fatally Wounded.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., May 13.—Dallas Baker and Thomas Ryan, members of good families of Adrian, Mich., while making their way on a freight train to South Bend were attacked by John Kramer of New York and John Moore of Evansville, both tramps, and after both had been robbed, Kramer passed the revolver to Moore and compelled Ryan to jump from the train. When Moore turned his back Baker secured the revolver and fired upon Kramer fatally wounding him. When the train reached South Bend the tramps were arrested, while the other two men were detained as witnesses.

Probably a Double Lynching.

SERGENT, Ky., May 13.—A woman was found dead in her bed at Tarpon, Dickenson county, Va., Monday, with marks of violence upon her, and the entire country is agog with excitement. Two colored boys, aged respectively 13 and 14, have been suspected and they will be lynched by the white people of the community. Great excitement prevails throughout the whole of Dickenson county.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., May 13.—Samuel Morford, a farmer living near this city, was kicked to death yesterday by a horse.

GAS TANK EXPLODES

Several Workmen Injured.
Though Not Fatally.

A VERY PECULIAR ACCIDENT.

The Men Were Repairing a Storm Damage and a Greater One Followed—Act of the Recent Legislature Declared Unconstitutional—Bicycle Rider Stricken—Veteran Suicides—Other Ohio State News.

COLUMBUS, O., May 13.—The gas tank at the imbecile asylum in West Columbus exploded at 1:30 a.m. Several men were engaged in making repairs in the tank, which had been damaged by a tree blown down during a storm in the afternoon. The workmen were all badly burned.

Among the injured were Dr. G. A. Doren, who has been superintendent almost 40 years; Theodore Letz, chief engineer; Robert Joiners, George Churchman, William Banks and Thomas Hunt, laborers. Superintendent Doren and Engineer Lentz are badly but not critically burned about the face, hand and neck. Hunt is believed to have been critically burned. The others are badly burned.

A Cyclist Sunstruck.

GALLIPOLIS, O., May 13.—Lewis C. McClellan, aged 28, a well known and popular dry goods merchant of this city, died suddenly at the office of Dr. L. C. Bean yesterday evening. He was riding a bicycle and death is supposed to be due to sunstroke or the rupturing of a blood vessel from being overheated. He was a prominent member of the Odd Fellows and United Commercial travelers.

Another Unconstitutional Act.

DAYTON, O., May 13.—Judge-elect Dustin yesterday held that the law providing for the issuance of $50,000 worth of bonds to build a garbage crematory and for the making of a tax levy to cover this issuance and the maintenance of the crematory is unconstitutional. This finding was made in the light of the recent supreme court decision.

Dividend Ordered.

HAMILTON, O., May 13.—In the case of the First National bank of Lockland vs. Charles F. Gunckel, the report of Henry H. Haines, receiver, has been approved and he has been ordered to declare a dividend of 15 per cent upon the respective claims of the creditors.

Ex-Senator Ide Convicted.

COLUMBUS, O., May 13.—Ex-Senator George Ide of Newark, was convicted yesterday afternoon of having offered Clerk R. Malloy of the house of representatives $50 to falsify a roll call in 1893.

A Veteran's Jump to Death.

DAYTON, O., May 13.—Isaac B. McGinn committed suicide at the soldiers' home yesterday

GOVERNOR BRADLEY announces he is still in the Presidential race. Wonder when he got in?

TOM REED says McKinley is a stradler. Republicans seem to prefer a stradler, however, to the Czar.

It is charged that Governor Bradley is trying to arrange a dicker with the McKinleyites to throw Kentucky's solid vote to the Ohio man at the coming convention, but he wants a place in McKinley's Cabinet in return for this. The Ohioan would get the worst of it in this trade of a Cabinet position for sixteen votes. Bradley will look after Bradley's interests every time.

The only Democratic editor in Kentucky who thinks Gov. Bradley is a "real nice man" has gotten his reward. Brother Walton, of the Stanford Interior Journal, was yesterday appointed one of the trustees of the "State Schools of Reform for Juvenile Criminals." — Lexington Herald.

Walton thinks so much of the Governor that he went over to Cincinnati a few days ago trying to arrange some scheme with the anti-McKinleyites, to further Bradley's interests in the Presidential race.

WILLIAM STEERS, an L. and N. brakeman, shot and fatally wounded Jack Alexander, a saloon and restaurant keeper at Paris, just before noon Tuesday. Steers was refused a drink, and drew a revolver and shot Alexander in the abdomen, the ball ranging upward and lodging in the heart. After being shot Alexander secured a pistol and pursued Steers fifty yards, when he fell from exhaustion and loss of blood. Steers was arrested and jailed. Both men were giants in stature. Alexander is a nephew of the late Jefferson Davis.

KENTUCKY RED MEN.

Mr. Thomas M. Russell Unanimously Elected Grand Representative to the Great Council.

The second annual session of the Great Council of Kentucky of the Improved Order of Red Men began at Augusta Tuesday. The business will be completed to-day and the session will wind up to-night with a big banquet, tendered the visitors by Paughcaughnaughsinque Tribe.

The Great Council of Kentucky was instituted in Lexington on December 27, 1895, with eight tribes and a total membership in the State of about 600. There are now twelve tribes with a total membership of something over 1,200, with several other tribes in course of organization.

This order, though young in this State, is said to be the oldest purely American order in existence. It has been growing more rapidly it is claimed in recent years than almost any of its friendly rivals. There are Great Councils in some forty States, with a total membership of nearly a quarter of a million. Wyandotte Tribe of this city is flourishing.

At Tuesday's session of the Council, Mr. Thomas M. Russell of Wyandotte Tribe was unanimously elected Grand Representative from Kentucky to the Great Council of the United States which will meet at Milwaukee some time during the summer. The members of Wyandotte Tribe and Mr. Russell's many other friends will be glad to learn of the honor conferred upon him.

Some twenty or twenty-five members of Wyandotte Tribe will go down on the train this evening to attend the banquet. They will return on the steamer Enos Taylor, chartered for the occasion by Grand Representative Russell.

Merchants of Maysville.
Don't wait until we secure the cheap excursions to advertise your wares and make an effort to build up your business but come now and place an "ad" in the DAILY and WEEKLY BULLETIN, and if your reward is not commensurate with the labor and expense attached to your effort it will not be because your "ad" did not receive a broad circulation. The advertiser who makes use of the DAILY and WEEKLY BULLETIN has placed his "ad" where the people of Maysville, Mason County and the adjoining counties can see it. Try it and be convinced.

The Saturday double edition of the DAILY BULLETIN you will find an excellent advertising medium, filled with the news of the day and a choice selection of special and miscellaneous matter.

Horses Wanted.
Mr. Joe Kindig, of York, Pa., will be at Mose Daulton & Bro.'s stable, Maysville, Ky., on Tuesday, May 26th, 1896, and will pay the highest market prices for good, sound horses or mares from four to six years old, well broken and in good flesh. Bring in good ones and get the money for them. Don't forget the date, Tuesday, May 26th.

Perfect Wisdom.
Would give us perfect health. Because men and women are not perfectly wise, they must take medicines to keep them perfectly healthy. Pure, rich blood is the basis of good health. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the One True Blood Purifier. It gives good health because it builds upon the true foundation—pure blood.

Gloom

Of ill health, despondency and despair, gives way to the sunshine of hope, happiness and health, upon taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, because it gives renewed life and vitality to the blood, and through nerve strength, vigor and energy to the whole body. Read

"Hood's Sarsaparilla helped me wonderfully, changed sickness to health, gloom to sunshine. No pen can describe what I suffered. I was deathly sick, had sick headaches every few days and those terrible tired, despondent feelings, with heart troubles so that I could not go up and down stairs without clasping my hand over my heart and resting. In fact, it would almost take my breath away. I suffered so I did not care to live, yet I had much to live for. There is no pleasure in life if deprived of health, for life becomes a burden. Hood's Sarsaparilla does far more than advertised. After taking one bottle, it is sufficient to recommend itself."

LEXINGTON has a mathematical wonder in Mary Ellen Rogers, the daughter of Henry Rogers, with whom she resides at 37 Winnie street. This woman has been blind for twenty-four years, and never made a figure in her life, yet she can tell accurately the number of days, hours, minutes and seconds in a year and give the day of the week on which any person is born if she is supplied with the date. She does this with lightning-like rapidity. She has been visited by a number of professors, who have pried her with intricate mathematical problems, only to be answered quickly and correctly.

Fickle Fashion's New-found Fad! ▷

Linen's the Thing. Linen shades and linen fabrics will line the streets this summer. It's the most sensible fad the summer girl has found. Linen spread in everything, plain Linen Colors, Linen Stripes, Linen Dots, Linen Organdies, Linen Lawns, Linen Dainties and so on through a stock of beautiful Wash Goods. Persian Patterns, Printed Warps and Dresden designs, come close to the Linen fad in popularity—hard to say which leads.

Dimities hold their own. This fabric was never shown in more beautiful colorings,—Dresden, Persian and warp effects without end. For 8 $\frac{1}{2}$, 10, 12 $\frac{1}{2}$, 15, 18, 20, 25.

Leno Tulle.—Entirely new. Light sheer fabric, not too open, between a lattice and plain cloth, comes in choice, delicate Organdy styles and Persian and linen shades, 15 $\frac{1}{2}$ yard.

Lace Stripe.—A novelty, with lace effect running lengthwise between stripes of $\frac{1}{2}$ to 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches, worn in light blue, pink, linen and other color combinations, 15 $\frac{1}{2}$ a yard.

INDIGNANT WOMEN

Of Kansas Threaten to Make May 29th Decoration Day.

THE STATE TREASURY.

A Statement Showing Its Conditions on April 30th.

TOPEKA, KAN., May 9.—The women of the Relief Corps of Blue Rapids, Kan., have taken up the question which they say has filled old soldiers from one end of the Union to the other with indignation, and have decided that if Decoration Day is to be desecrated by horse races, baseball games, cock fights and fishing picnics they will abandon the day to the unfeeling and sporting element, and will decorate graves on May 29th instead of May 30th. They will thus be able to mourn their dead without the bawls of base ball rooters ringing in their ears or the yaws of the tin-horn sports with blood-shot eyes who attend the Memorial Day horse races. Decoration Day, which was originally intended for a solemn day of mourning, they charge, has become a wild and awful period of shrieking brass bands, beer jamborees, prize fights, excursions, noise, explosions, drunkenness and debauch.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whisky nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents per bottle at J. James Wood's drug store.

GO AND ENJOY A GOOD LAUGH.

Two Side-Splitting Plays to be Given at the Opera House—Benefit of the Base Ball Team.

Inasmuch as an earnest effort has at last been born out of the much-agitated question, "How shall we help our city and her interests?" the young people of Maysville have taken the first step of a practical nature.

No citizen fails to appreciate the fact that a good ball team is a benefit in many ways to our city. We have a beautiful and accessible park but for lack of funds with which to defray necessary expenses we have no club. It requires a few outside men of known ability to keep up a good reputation sufficient to draw crowds. About $300 is needed to organize. The time has not passed when we can get excellent players. Tenley, Heilman and Lever, it is understood, desire to come to us. Three better amateurs are not upon the diamond. Add to these Sutherland, Cox, Rudy and two or three young stars who are in training, and who show great ability, and you have a team who will put to rout any of the league clubs with whom they come in contact.

To raise this amount, a company of young people will give two side-splitting and laughter-provoking farces by that incomparably funny and brilliantly-witty play-writer and story-teller, John Kendrick Bangs. Next Wednesday night, the 20th of May, is the date when these plays will be given upon the local boards, at Washington Opera House. The price of admission has been fixed at only 35 and 50 cents.

The worthiness of the cause, the effort of the performers and the unselfish interest which inspires them should be sufficient to pack the house from pit to dome. Let everybody attend. Begin now and talk it up. Get up a party of friends and go. Push it, enthuse over it, work for it and a great stride shall have been taken looking to the making of attractions which shall not only invite strangers to us but entertain them after they get here.

Now do your part and we shall no longer hear croaking, fault-finding or adverse criticism.

And bear this in mind: Every play yet given by local talent has been well given and was greatly enjoyed.

The one next Wednesday will not be an exception.

U. C. T. Excursion.

On account of the United Commercial Travelers' Convention in Cincinnati, the C. & O. will run a special excursion train from Huntington to Cincinnati, reaching Cincinnati at 4 p. m., stopping only at principal stations, and which will reach Maysville at 2:47 p. m. Fare for the round trip, $1.25. Tickets will be good returning on regular trains, except trains 2 and 4, up to and including train 16 Sunday, May 31.

MARRIED BENA.

A Month Later He Skipped Out and Has Never Returned—Sequel to a Salem Wedding.

The Cincinnati Tribune, in Tuesday's issue, says: "Bena Hensen seeks a divorce from Henry Henson, to whom she was married November 4th, 1894, at Salem, Mason County, Ky."

"Henry had represented to the plaintiff, who was a Miss Bauer, that he was in a good position, and that he could support her in comfort, and provide her with a home of her own."

"Henry was apparently a deceiver, for at the end of the month he borrowed some $50 that his wife had earned before their marriage and skipped out, and has not since returned."

"She claims that he often called her vile names and abused her, and that he threatened to throw a whisky bottle at her head. The bottle was empty at the time, and she was, therefore, afraid that he would carry out his threat."

"She asks that she may be restored to her maiden name."

Cincinnati and Return $1.

On Sunday, May 17th, the C. & O. will sell round trip tickets Maysville to Cincinnati and return at $1. Tickets good going on train at 8:50 a. m. Good returning on special train leaving Fourth street station Sunday at 7 p. m. Brooklyn vs. Cincinnati at base ball park on this date.

THE Exchange Hotel, a two-story brick building near the L. and N. passenger depot at Paris, owned by J. M. Thomas & Son, caught fire in the upper story Monday at noon from a defective flue, and was almost completely gutted by the flames.

WM. CRUTE, a blacksmith at Youngsville, Adams County, lost his life in a very peculiar manner Monday. He was being aided in welding a wagon tire by William Kellis, who was wielding a large sledge-hammer. While Kellis was striking the fourth lick the large hammer flew from the handle, striking Crute in the forehead, killing him instantly.

COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY MUNCIE, of the Adair Circuit Court, on learning of the pardon of Porter Price, who was convicted in that court for assassinating Sam Keith, was indignant toward Gov. Bradley for the executive act. He announced positively that he was no longer a Bradley supporter, because of that one act of injustice to the Commonwealth. Muncie prosecuted Price, and he says he is thoroughly satisfied that he was guilty of murder.

DANVILLE is a prohibition town and a case of interest to the people of such towns was tried in the Circuit Court last week. A druggist was indicted for selling a pint of whisky. The proof showed that the purchaser had a prescription for a quart and had paid for a pint and had taken it with him. Judge Saufley decided that a man might have a prescription for a gallon and could purchase and pay for it in such quantities as he desired until the full amount ordered of the physician had been procured.

A Household Treasure.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results following its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable. G. A. Dykeman, druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best Cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested? Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.

A "GOOD ORDER" SOCIETY.

There are about twenty-five prisoners now confined there, some of them awaiting trial for the worst of crimes.

These prisoners have formed a "good order" society and organized a mock court to punish offenders. Fred Bass, who shot and killed Orth Gambia, was chosen Judge, and Laughlin, who killed his wife and niece near Augusta, is Sheriff.

They have adopted laws against spitting on the floor, boisterous conduct, using vile or profane language, &c., &c., and these are strictly enforced. Offenders are whipped with a strap. Garrett Breckinridge, awaiting trial for murder, is the executioner.

Jailer Johnson says the society has effected a remarkable improvement in the conduct of the prisoners. The noise they formerly made greatly annoyed a young lady who was very sick at her home on Fourth street just south of the jail, and Mr. Johnson told them of this, and his complaint resulted in the organization of the society.

The society details two of its members to clean up the cells each day. The cells have been papered. When meals are served, there's no longer a scramble but every man awaits his turn and quietly takes his tray from the waiter.

While in the jail one day this week, Mr. Johnson violated one of the rules of the society and was notified if he did that again they would have to punish him.

WONDERFUL LIGHT.

It Cannot be Distinguished From the Rays of the Sun—Electricity's Advance.

City Electrician Cabot, of Cincinnati, returned from New York a few days ago, where he had been attending the National Electrical Exposition. He is enthusiastic over what he saw and learned.

"I believe within the next five years," he said to the Post, "greater advance in the cheapening of the cost of light machinery will be made than ever before in the history of electric lighting. The most wonderful electric light in the world is made by McFarland Moore, a New York chemist. You absolutely can not tell it from the rays of the sun."

Dr. Jaques, of Boston, has just invented a simple process by which electric light and energy can be made without a battery, dynamo or motor. It furnishes ten times as much light or power as the present process. I think it a greater discovery than that of the practical application of steam. If the Jaques invention and Moore's discovery are combined, the new plus ultra light of all ages will have been made.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 1,342 hds, with receipts for the same period 1,067 hds. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 71,183 hds. Sales of the crop of 1895 on our market to date amount to 68,115 hds.

The volume of business on our market last week was extremely small and the tone of the market quiet and unchanged. Some portions of the State have been recently favored with good rains, but the greater part of the tobacco territory continues extremely dry for the time of year and no progress has been made in the direction of transplanting the crop.

Trash (dark or damaged).....$ 1.00 @ 1.50
Common color trash.....2.00 @ 4.00
Medium to good color trash.....4.00 @ 6.00
Common colors, not color.....2.00 @ 4.00
Common color lugs.....4.50 @ 6.00
Medium to good color lugs.....5.00 @ 9.00
Common to medium leaf.....5.00 @ 8.00
Medium to good leaf.....8.00 @ 15.00
Good to fine leaf.....15.00 @ 18.00
Select wrapper leaf.....18.00 @ 22.00

Springdale.

Farmers mostly done planting corn.

Tobacco plants very scarce and considerable land intended for tobacco being planted in corn.

In the BULLETIN of April 26th we see an item that a certain person was allowed by the Fiscal Court $6 for furnishing room for school elections at this place. The tax-payers would like to know when, where and under what circumstances said individual ever furnished room for school election. For twenty years at least said elections have been held in the school house. Will some one please explain?

A very prominent school trustee of a certain district in this end of the county, who by the way is a hustler at elections, was interviewing one of our trustees lately as to whether or not the trustees of Springdale school ever derived any pecuniary assistance through an underground route and how such a thing could be worked to evade detection, and finished by saying that was all the money there was in the office and teachers got too much money anyhow.

Orangeburg.

A good rain here is badly needed.
